

The Law and Government program will be holding a moderated discussion about the new book The Big Truth: Upholding Democracy in the Age of "The Big Lie" with visiting Professor of Law Kimberly Wehle and our keynote speaker:

Major Garrett

November 30th | 1:00pm-2:30pm | Room NT01
American University Washington College of Law
4300 Nebraska Ave, NW | Washington, DC 20016

Major Garrett is an American journalist and chief Washington correspondent for CBS News. He is the host of The Takeout podcast and was a correspondent for National Journal. Prior to joining National Journal, he was the senior White House correspondent for Fox News. He covered the 2004 presidential election, the War on terror, and the 2008 presidential election.

The author of several books, The Big Truth is Garrett's latest book with David Becker, the Executive Director of the nonpartisan Center for Election Innovation & Research. The book illuminates a crowning achievement in America's quest for a robust democracy in the face of the Big Lie about the 2020 presidential election. Filled with interviews of the guardians of democracy-election workers, January 6th Committee members Reps. Liz Cheney (R-Wyoming) and Jamie Raskin (D-Maryland), Georgia Secretary of State Brad Raffensperger, and more-it is an overpowering counterattack against the false narrative that the 2020 election was fraudulent-a narrative that culminated in the Jan. 6, 2021 insurrection at the Capitol and has spread across the political spectrum into a serious cancer on our democracy.

The authors report what actually happened in 2020 while calling out each Trumpian misdirection designed to beguile Americans into chasing phantom allegations of election crimes, while giving a voice to the regular Americans who made that election work.

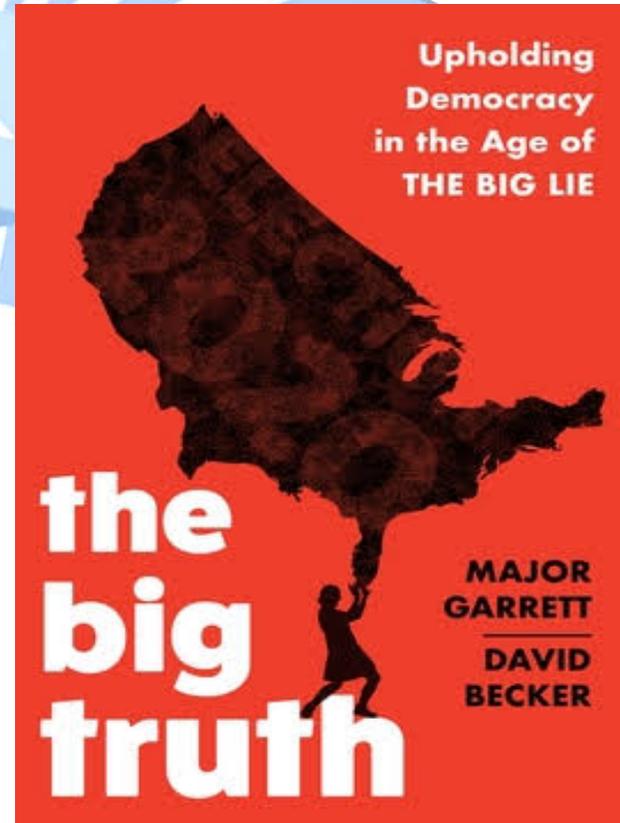

Garrett will be taking questions from the audience, and providing his take on the 2022 midterms.
